

Comedy With Attitude

Anthony Spano

Prepare yourself for comedy with attitude, thanks to Anthony Spano, New Jersey based comedian and actor. Anthony, among other things, is a lover of sports and music (with a passion for both that can lead to frustration & some mild forms of anger) a reviewer of current world events and a self admitted "road rager". Born and raised in Jersey City, New Jersey, "where only the strong survive", Anthony was the youngest of 3 brothers, a product of old world Italian parents. Growing up, he was your typical city boy taking part in some of his favorite past times including drinking in the school yard, night clubbing and the occasional bar brawl while maintaining his comic sense of humor.

After finishing High school and graduating from New Jersey City University in Jersey City with a B.S. in business administration, Anthony soon found out that after 17 years of corporate raiding, life in corporate America was not for him. In the last 2 years Anthony has established himself as a powerful comedian through original stand-up performances. To attempt to define Anthony Spano could prove disastrous so shut it! Anthony has played numerous venues in and around the tri-state area.

He has worked with Artie Lange, Reverend Bob Levy, Jim Florentine, K.C. Armstrong, Yucko the Clown, Sal the Stockbroker and Dan the Parody Man of the Howard Stern Radio Show. Other comics Anthony has had the privilege of performing with include Bobby Collins, Nick DiPaolo, Mike Marino, Carl LaBove, Bob Nelson, Jackie "The Jokeman" Martling, Joseph Anthony, Vic Dibitetto, Joe Moffa, Angel Salazar, Otto & George and Rich Vos. Anthony is currently a regular at Uncle Vinnie's Comedy Club in Point Pleasant Beach New Jersey. He has played at the Comic Strip Live, Gladys's, Club Ha and Pips Comedy Club and The Funny Farm Comedy Club in New York, Rascals on the Hudson in Jersey City, the Stress Factory in New Brunswick and Banana's Comedy Club in Hasbrouck Heights New Jersey and Poughkeepsie New York. Anthony is also a graduate of the John Casablanca School of acting. Anthony has appeared in several independent movie's, Big Fish award winning "A Cold Day in Hell", directed by Chris Piccone and seven other independent movies for Outworld Entertainment: "Code Name: Sell" which won an award in the short film category in the Accolade Competition and also "Can't Keep A Dead Man Down" which both were directed by Jody Murphy, the "Frappuchino's", "Frappuchino's Christmas", "ARIA", "After The Fall" and "Nevemore" directed by Cesar Cruz.

As far as on air radio credits, Anthony was a finalist on 1050 AM radio's ESPN Dream Job contest and he was recently a guest on SIRIUS satellite's The Wise Guy radio show hosted by Vincent Pastore (Big Pussy) of the HBO television show The Sopranos and the Scott Ferrall Show hosted by sportscaster Scott Ferrall.
